

RESULT IN CITIES OF BADGER STATE

ELECTION RETURNS FROM WISCONSIN.

The Tendency to Split the Tickets Seems to Have Been Strong as the Party Victories Seem to be About Evenly Divided Between Both Sides.

Milwaukee, April 7.—[Special]—Late returns from the state are as follows:

Chippewa Falls—Mayor, E. Pozuanaki, R. council democratic.

Racine—Mayor, F. Graham, D. council republican.

Fond du Lac—Mayor, L. A. Earhart, D. council democrat.

La Crosse—Mayor, McCord, R., and whole city ticket.

Portage—Republicans elect all but marshal and clerk.

Eau Claire—Mayor W. H. Frawley, D. council democratic.

Madison—Mayor, M. J. Hoven, D. council democratic.

Marinette—Mayor D. Mann, D. and whole city ticket.

Oshkosh—Mayor, A. Ideson, D. and whole city ticket.

Superior—Mayor, Rev. C. S. Starkweather, the man who was impeached.

Jefferson.

Jefferson, Wis., April 7.—The entire democratic ticket was elected as follows: Mayor, W. W. Reed; assessor, Frank Greve; treasurer, Joseph Vogel; supervisors, I. W. Bird, J. J. Spangler; aldermen, James Bouks, James Shannon, Joseph Kramer, E. J. Reid, Elbauch, John Turek, Eos Seitz, Paul Hibbard, Joseph Beck, George Grimm, the unanimous nominee for county judge, received 367 votes. For justice of the supreme court, R. Marshall received 217 votes.

Fort Atkinson.

Fort Atkinson, Wis., April 7.—The city election resulted in a reversal and the choice of democratic city officers—six out of eight aldermen and three out of four supervisors. Nicholas D. Bradt was elected mayor over General G. W. Burchard by 42 votes; Editor Parker, treasurer, over C. M. Aspinwall by 74; George P. Klein, assessor, over J. M. Viele by 112; Asa Foote, comptroller, over S. S. Swasey by 137.

Whitewater.

Whitewater, Wis., April 7.—Frank W. Tratt received the full vote for mayor, there being no opposition. For city treasurer, Kraepin, dem., received 333; Finch, rep., 230. For assessor, McGraw, dem., 343; Coburn, rep., 209; justices of the supreme court, Marshall 308; judge of county court, Wheeler, 409. There were no contests except for treasurer and assessor.

Monroe.

Monroe, Wis., April 7.—Robert Miller, dem., elected assessor over J. S. Ball, rep., by 220 majority. Aldermen and supervisors evenly divided. For probate judge, Becker has a small plurality in the city; county uncertain, with Becker still in the lead and Douglas following closely, and towns where a big vote for Luchsinger is expected are not heard from.

Stoughton.

Stoughton, Wis., April 7.—The vote: Judge Marshall, 163; Carpenter, 225; Ollis, 191; Zimmerman, 148. O. K. Roe was elected mayor by 206 majority; William Lindrud, clerk, by 29 majority over W. O. Hegelmeyer; Carl Tannert, treasurer, 36 majority over Carl Rasmussen; K. Olsen, assessor, 106 majority.

Delavan.

Delavan, Wis., April 7.—The republicans carried everything before them electing the entire municipal. Those elected are: Supervisors, H. G. Hollister, chairman; G. W. Farrar, L. Downs; clerk, A. H. Lowe; treasurer, H. C. Johnson; assessor, W. D. Bailey; justices, T. F. Williams, A. Bowers.

Brodhead.

Brodhead, Wis., April 7.—Brodhead gave license 87 majority. The license municipal ticket was elected, except mayor. O. J. Barr defeated J. A. Young. County judge, leading candidates: Douglas 184; Becker 126. Decatur, Douglas, 29; Becker 27. Albany, no license 23 majority.

Eagle.

Eagle, Wis., April 7.—The following officers were elected: Lan E. Hall chairman, dem.; clerk, John O. Wilton, rep.; treasurer, Matt Clohlay, dem.; assessor, L. Farley, dem.; for county judge, Milton S. Griswold's majority is 50. Against soldiers' monument, 152.

Palmyra.

Palmyra, Wis., April 7.—The following town officers were elected: Chairman, Charles Powers; assessor, William Piper; treasurer, Charles Groves. County judge, George Grim, 99 votes; judge supreme court, Marshall, 64.

For amendment to constitution, 9; against, 61. No issue was involved.

Shullsburg.

Shullsburg, Wis., April 7.—Democrats carried entire town ticket with exception of town chairman and one justice of the peace by majorities ranging from 67 to 8. The democratic candidate for chairman was a free silver republican.

Waukesha.

Waukesha, Wis., April 7.—Colonel H. M. Enos (dem.) was elected mayor and William James (dem.) treasurer; the republicans elected balance of ticket and ten of twelve aldermen.

Lake Geneva.

Lake Geneva, Wis., April 7.—The republicans elected A. T. Seymour for mayor. The vote on local option resulted in a tie, 273 votes cast on each side.

Elkhorn.

Elkhorn, Wis., April 7.—Republicans elect Norris, mayor; White, assessor; Muofer, treasurer; Adkins, clerk; Wheeler, county judge.

Army Worm in Wisconsin.

Milwaukee, Wis., April 7.—Official reports received by the weather office from volunteer observers in parts of Wisconsin show a serious condition of the small grains, as a result of unfavorable weather in January, which froze winter wheat, rye, red clover and timothy. Advices from Barraboo say the army worms can be seen everywhere, crawling over the dead leaves.

FEARFUL DEED OF A CHILD.

Baby Burns Out His Brother's Eyes with a Poker.

Chicago, April 7.—Edward, the 10-months' old son of Richard Freer of 2956 Thirty-ninth place, had both eyes burned out by a red hot poker in the hands of his brother, 2½ years old.

The children were playing in front of the kitchen fire. The mother had occasion to go upstairs for a moment, and it was during her absence that the accident occurred.

The baby's screams brought Mrs. Freer down to the kitchen on a run. When she reached the children Russell was sitting astride the baby, crowing with delight and forcing the red-hot poker into the baby's eyes.

The police ambulance was immediately called and the child was taken to the Morris Porter hospital. It is feared the child will die.

Iowa's Wheat Output Reduced.

Ottumwa, Iowa, April 7.—Iowa's winter wheat crop will be about one-fourth of last year. Nearly all the winter wheat of Iowa is produced in the Des Moines River valley from Ottumwa to Keokuk. The counties of Wapello, Davis, Van Buren, Lee and Jefferson produced about 200,000 bushels last year, Wapello alone producing 60,000 bushels. Thirty thousand acres were sown in Wapello county this year, and there will not be over 15,000 bushels of the crop. The grain was killed by late snows. There is little sowing of spring wheat.

Sent to the Senate.

Washington, April 7.—The president has sent to the senate the following nominations: Theodore Roosevelt of New York, to be assistant secretary of the navy. William Barret Ridgely, postmaster at Springfield, Ill. Alonzo J. Tyler of Tennessee, collector of internal revenue for the second district of Tennessee. Park Agnew of Virginia, collector of internal revenue for the sixth district of Virginia. Capt. A. S. Crowninshield, to be chief of the bureau of navigation in the department of the navy. Rev. William G. Cassard of Maryland, to be chaplain in the navy.

Will Fight Insurance Law.

Indianapolis, Ind., April 7.—The life insurance companies doing business in the state have employed ex-Attorney General A. G. Smith and other lawyers and will resist to the Supreme court of the United States the order of the board of state tax commissioners that paid-up insurance policies and policies having a cash surrender value must be listed for taxation. The companies joined in a circular letter to their policy-holders advising that they refuse to return their policies for taxation until the courts have passed on the question.

No Bodies Yet Recovered.

Evansville, Ind., April 7.—Four weeks have elapsed since the terrible wreck on the Evansville & Terre Haute railroad at White river, in which five lives were lost, and not one of the bodies has been recovered. The work of repairing the large cravasse made by the raging river after the wreck has been completed and all train service has been resumed over the main line of the road.

Cigarmakers File a Protest.

Indianapolis, Ind., April 7.—The Cigar Manufacturers' association of Indiana, at a meeting here, formulated a protest against the Dingley tariff bill in so far as it affects the cigar industry. Nearly every cigarmaking establishment in the state was represented. It is declared in the protest that the growers of tobacco are already the most favored of any class of agriculturists and that their demands are unreasonable and are not justified by the facts.

MR. MORGAN TALKS IN CUBA'S FAVOR

THE ALABAMA MEMBER ADVOCATES INTERFERENCE.

Resolutions Introduced Favoring Recognition of the Insurgents by the United States—Appropriation Bills Reported—The Forestry Reservations—News From Washington.

Washington, April 7.—Much bad blood was developed in the senate Tuesday over the Cuban question, and there were numerous stormy passages and acrimonious personal charges. Early in the day Mr. Morgan (Ala.) called up his Cuban resolution, which is as follows:

"Resolved, by the senate and house of representatives, That a condition of public war exists between the government of Spain and the government proclaimed, and for some time maintained by force of arms by the people of Cuba, and that the United States of America shall maintain a strict neutrality between the contending powers, according to each all the rights of belligerents in the ports and territory of the United States."

Mr. Morgan spoke for some time in a dispassionate manner on the resolution, but was aroused by Mr. Hale (Me.) to a series of sharp retorts. It led to the declaration by Mr. Morgan that instead of sending a lawyer to Cuba to investigate the case of Dr. Ruiz, as was contemplated, the administration would do well to send a ship of war to Havana and demand redress.

Mr. Morgan will continue his speech to-day, and has given notice of a motion to proceed with the Cuban resolution to a final vote.

Most of the day was given to the bankruptcy bill, Mr. Stewart (Nev.) speaking in opposition. The discussion drifted to the financial question, Mr. Chandler and Mr. Stewart having an amusing discussion on bimetalism.

Will Exempt Mineral Lands.

Washington, April 7.—The president has decided to take no action in the matter of revoking or modifying the order of Mr. Cleveland, setting aside twenty-one forest reserves in the west, until he ascertains whether congress will legislate on the subject. It is the general understanding now that the senate will tack an amendment to the general deficiency appropriation bill, empowering the president to modify or revoke the order. There is said to be a legal question as to the president's power under existing law to make a revocation of an order of his predecessor.

Bryan Heard In Court.

Washington, April 7.—The supreme court room and corridors without were crowded Tuesday with spectators, attracted by the appearance of William J. Bryan as counsel in a case. The case on hearing involved the constitutionality of a law of the state of Nebraska enacted April 12, 1893, entitled "An Act to Regulate Railroads, to Classify Freights, to Fix Reasonable Maximum Rates to be Charged for the Transportation of Freights," etc. Several railroad companies were arrayed against the state board of transportation, the Union Pacific at their head, with James C. Carter as chief counsel.

To Exclude Undesirable Aliens.

Washington, April 7.—Secretary Gage has taken steps looking to a more vigorous enforcement of the immigration laws against the admission into this country of alien women of immoral character. The question involved is whether on information received subsequent to their arrival and admission they can be arrested wherever found and deported. The secretary has directed Commissioner General Stump to make a test case, in which the rights of the immigration officials in the premises be clearly defined.

Flood Message Not Necessary.

Washington, April 7.—President McKinley may abandon his idea of sending a special message to congress asking for the relief of the Mississippi flood sufferers. Such action, it is thought, is rendered unnecessary by the passage by the senate of the Bate resolution, diverting for the relief of the flood sufferers the unexpended balance of the appropriation made from time to time to meet contingencies in connection with cholera and other epidemics.

Appropriation Bills Reported.

Washington, April 7.—The sundry civil and the Indian appropriation bills were reported to the senate Tuesday by the committee on appropriations. The only change of importance made restores to the Indian bill the provision for the opening of the Uncompahgre reservation in Utah. Several amendments are suggested to the sundry civil bill, but they all look to the correction of clerical errors.

Will Demand an Indemnity.

Tangier, Morocco, April 7.—Acting upon instructions received from Washington, United States Consul Burke has sent an energetic demand to the Sherifian court for ample reparation for the threat of a Moorish soldier to shoot Vice-Consul Castleton at Larache. It is believed here that the United States will demand a heavy indemnity as the result of the insult.

HARRISON WINS OUT AT THE WINDY CITY

CARTER H. JR., ELECTED MAYOR YESTERDAY.

Democrats Swept the City, the Vote Given Their Candidate Being Larger Than the Combined Opposition—Women Pay Important Part in Kansas—Other Returns.

Chicago, April 7.—3 p. m.—A complete count of the ballots gives Harrison five thousand more votes than the combined opposition.

Chicago, April 7.—Carter Henry Harrison was elected mayor of Chicago at yesterday's election by an overwhelming vote. With him was elected the democratic city ticket. The democratic landslide carried with it the north, south and west town tickets. The vote was as follows: Har-ison, 142,243; Harlan, 66,575; Sears, 58,371; Hesing, 14,982. Harrison's plurality, 75,668.

CARTER HENRY HARRISON.

The city council is changed from an overwhelming republican body to a democratic council. Totals—Democrats, 38; republicans, 21; independents, 8.

Township elections were held throughout Illinois yesterday. Special dispatches show the republicans elected their tickets in Dwight, Round Grove, Pleasant Ridge and Fairbury, Livingston county; Cerro Gordo and Bement, Platt county; Martinsville, Clark county; Rountree, Litchfield and Hillsboro, Montgomery county; Clay City, Clay county; Monmouth, Kankakee, Elgin, Decatur; Ross, Edgar county; Harvard, Alden and Dunham, McHenry county; Sycamore, Moweaqua; Lisle, DuPage county; Bloomington, Paxton, Joliet, Princeton, Peoria, Mattoon.

Democrats elected their tickets in Harbel township, Montgomery county; Hartland, McHenry county; Freeport, Mount Vernon, Carrollton, Havana, Charleston, Kinmundy; Salem, Marion county; Napierville, Louisville, South Litchfield.

HOW KANSAS VOTED.

The Women Play an Important Part in the Elections.

Topeka, Kas., April 7.—The allied free silver party elected to be mayor of Mankato, Kas., J. B. Rea, a somewhat noted character.

The women of Kansas were an important factor in the municipal elections, and a large percentage of the vote everywhere was polled by them. In four of the six first-class cities of the state the republicans were victorious. Topeka, the republican stronghold, went republican by about 1,500. In Wichita and Atchison the republican tickets were elected by small majorities, and in Kansas City, Kas., Robt. S. Marshman, republican, is elected mayor by probably 500 majority, and the republicans elect a majority of their candidates. Leavenworth elected a democratic mayor, and at Fort Scott the fusionists elected a majority of their candidates. At Seneca the prohibitionists secured a decided victory, but at Girard, Stockton and Larned the "wet" element was victorious. The town of Galena went democratic, but in a majority of the small cities the fusionists combined against the republicans under the head of "citizens' ticket," and as such were successful in Coffeyville, Emporia, Marysville, Great Bend, Newton and Sterling. Republican victories are reported from Hutchinson, Kingman, Wellington, Eldorado, Burlington, Eureka, Columbus, Belleville and Hiawatha.

Will Not Contest Election.

Detroit, Mich., April 7.—At a conference of local republican leaders it was decided not to contest the election of Maybury as mayor. Returns from the state election are still fragmentary to-day, but it is evident that Justice Long of the supreme court is re-elected by upward of 40,000 plurality. Complete figures in the Detroit election give Maybury, democrat, 550 majority over Stewart, the Pingree candidate. Out of sixty cities in which mayors were elected, the silver party carried twenty-eight, and the republicans twenty-seven. In five party lines were not drawn.

The Elections in Minnesota.

St. Paul, Minn., April 7.—Fifty villages of Minnesota elected mayors Tuesday. Party lines were not closely drawn. The republicans carried Albert Lea, Ancker, Manning Prairie and Helena. The democrats won at Fergus Falls and Wabasha. The populists carried Willmar and the reform party took nearly all the offices at Tracy. Pro-license candidates were usually successful, though Albert Lea declared for prohibition.

Late Returns from Missouri.

St. Louis, Mo., April 7.—The city election was a quiet but vigorous triangular contest. The vote is in the neighborhood of 90,000, as against 118,000 last November. The republican candidate, Henry Ziegenhein, has won, late returns giving him 12,751 plurality. Elsewhere in Missouri all the elections show democratic victories in towns which were carried for McKinley last fall.

Silver Mayor in Denver.

Denver, Col., April 7.—The mayoral contest resulted in a victory for the present incumbent, Thomas McMurray, a silver republican, who was running as an independent against a democrat and a straight republican. His plurality was 4,000 to 5,000. The rest of the city officers are in doubt.

Rhode Island Election To-day.

Providence, R. I., April 7.—The annual election of state officers of Rhode Island will be held today, and there seems to be no doubt that the election of the full Republican ticket is assured.

INDIANA PLANTS MAY RUN.

Important Decision to the Union Flint and Green Glass Blowers.

Anderson, Ind., April 6.—Indiana flints were notified Tuesday from their headquarters at Alto that by a vote just cast, averaging five for to one against, the Union Flint and Green Glass Blowers of the United States have agreed to allow manufacturers to run their factories without the usual summer shutdown during the hottest months, if they choose. This will enable the union factories to fill orders at any time and consequently compete with the non-union factories which have no summer shutdown. The matter of running through the hot months is left entirely with the manufacturer. This is one of the most important moves yet made in glass circles.

Hard Winter for Modocs.

Redding, Cal., April 7.—The remnant of Captain Jack's tribe of Modoc Indians, now living in Modoc county, are in a pitiable condition, verging on actual starvation. It is reported that their number has been reduced one-half this winter by death, due to starvation and exposure. There is no reservation and no appeal to the United States government.

Meeting of the Women Suffragists.

Joliet, Ill., April 7.—A meeting of the women suffrage advocates of Illinois was held in this city Tuesday afternoon. Lena M. Beck of Bloomington, Ind., had charge of the meeting, and she stated that the work in Illinois was in the nature of an experiment, and that its continuance would depend upon the financial support received.

No Compromise With Cubans.

Madrid, April 7.—It is semi-officially denied here that the Spanish authorities have entered into negotiations for the submission of the Cuban insurgents. The government has ordered a vigorous campaign to be pushed until the rebellion is crushed.

The National Prohibition Convention.

Newcastle, April 7.—The national prohibition convention of Great Britain, in session here Tuesday, discussed papers written by Neal Dow, Prof. Hill of Iowa, and Mr. Spence of Toronto. Fraternal greetings were received from Washington by cable.

United Press Assignee's Bond.

New York, April 7.—Frederic G. Mason, the assignee of the United Press, has been granted leave by Justice Beekman of the Supreme Court to file a provisional bond of $35,000 until the corporation's schedules are filed, when the amount of the bond will be fixed by the court.

Italian Admiral Is Weary.

Canea, April 7.—Admiral Canavaro has asked the Italian government to relieve him of his command, and the Marquis di Rudini has replied that in the event of a blockade of the Greek ports the admiral's request will be granted.

Murder at Las Vegas, N. M.

Beloit, Wis., April 7.—Mrs. E. H. Crane has received the information that her brother, Albert Langstaff, a former Beloit man, had been robbed and murdered at Las Vegas, N. M., where he was engaged in mining.

Will Reside at Ottawa.

Ottawa, Can., April 7.—Mgr. Merry Del Val, the papal delegate to Canada, will make Ottawa his headquarters and will take up his residence in Sir Donald Smith's cottage.

Concession to Americans.

Teguicigalpa, Honduras, April 7.—Congress will grant to a syndicate of Washington capitalists a concession to build an electric railroad on the Fryer system from Puerto to Truxillo.

Czar Turns to Denmark.

Paris, April 7.—A rumor is in circulation here that the king of Denmark, at the instance of the czar, has been asked to arbitrate the Cretan question.

HIGH WATER PASSES ALL FORMER LIMITS

THE PEOPLE OF MANY TOWNS ARE SUFFERING.

The Question Now is Whether the Deluge Will Subside in Time to Permit Seeding—Appeal From the Citizens Relief Committee—Deluge At Fargo—Flood News.

Memphis, Tenn., April 7.—The feature of the flood in the Mississippi delta is the gradual spread of water over an area that hitherto was never overflowed. The upper crevasse, in Tunica county, is 2,000 feet wide, and so great is the outpour that water from below the break is being drawn up to and hurried out over the fertile valley through the crevasse. All of the country east to the main line of the Yazoo & Mississippi Valley road is flooded, and in many places the water has gone over the tracks, filling the Yazoo river. The fall in the main channel at Helena, Greenville, Vicksburg and Arkansas City is due to the filling up of the delta and the lower White river country.

The supreme question is the duration of the flood. If the lower levees along Louisiana and southeastern Arkansas should hold, which it is believed they will not do, the emptying of the delta and St. Francis basin will be slow. If they break and the river continues to fall at Cairo, the upper St. Francis basin and the delta will be clear of water by May 5. If this should prove true, there will be no difficulty in growing cotton. But breaks in Louisiana and southeast Arkansas will hold water in that territory until the middle of May, far after the usual time for planting cotton in that territory. The river at Memphis is stationary to-night.

HEAVY DAMAGE DONE.

Citizens' Relief Committee of Memphis Makes a Statement.

Washington, April 7.—R. C. Graves and J. S. Menken, representing the citizens' relief committee of Memphis, Tenn., organized for the purpose of relieving the people of the flooded country tributary to that city, have arrived in the city. They have prepared the following statement, which they will submit to the president:

"From Marion, Ark., north of Memphis, to Greenville, Miss., there are now at least fifty towns and villages under water, and a territory extending from 100 miles north of Memphis to 200 miles south, and five to forty miles wide, is submerged and devastated by the flood. Hundreds of thousands of acres of cultivated soil, with growing crops, are included in this submerged territory, and there are from 50,000 to 60,000 people whose property has been destroyed and whose business has been suspended thereby. The amount of damage to property is incalculable. In addition to the growing crops which have been destroyed, thousands of head of working stock and of cattle have been drowned and starved.

"This flood is the greatest and most destructive that has ever devastated the Mississippi Valley, the water being 2-12 feet higher than the highest stage it has ever reached before.

Deluge at Fargo, N. D.

Fargo, N. D., April 7.—The situation is appalling. While the Red river rose only three inches Monday night, the Big Coulee west of this city took a second spurt and went up fourteen inches, flooding the entire west side of town and driving hundreds of people from their homes. The water is within a few inches of the floors of the principal business houses, and a rise another foot would practically put the entire city afloat.

Will Call Extra Session.

Little Rock, Ark., April 7.—Gov. Jones has decided to call the extra session of the general assembly to convene Monday, April 26. His proclamation, setting forth the special legislation which he desires considered will be issued the latter part of this week. The date is fixed earlier than was expected on account of the imperative demands of the people in the flooded districts of eastern Arkansas.

Drowned in South Dakota.

Redfield, S. D., April 7.—Henry Struve and two sons were drowned Monday on Gus Bull's farm, six miles south of Frankfort, in this county. This makes six deaths from drowning within two weeks. The floods exceed anything ever witnessed in this county. The water in the rivers is eight feet higher than the highest water mark heretofore.

Abolishes Slavery in Zanzibar.

Zanzibar, April 7.—The sultan of Zanzibar has issued a decree, abolishing slavery. If Zanzibar is unable to meet the full expense, it is believed that the imperial government will assist.

Turks for the Frontier.

London, April 7.—A special dispatch from Constantinople says that the council of ministers has decided to call out and send to the frontier forty more battalions of army reserves.

Judge J. W. Sale was re-elected circuit judge although definite figures are not at hand.

The result in both city and ward tickets, will be found in another column.

THE RESULT IN THE COUNTY

The Neighboring Cities and Villages Establish Their Policy.

Beloit, Wis., April 7—The unusual situation of a municipal election without opposition to the regular republican nominees, with a single exception, was the condition today. C. F. Hardy was elected mayor and J. K. Bullock treasurer. The interest was centered on the vote on the license question, a majority being given for license of 316, almost exactly the same as last year. The temperance folks had considerable hopes of carrying the day, although no thorough work was done by them.

Afton Goes Republican.

Afton, April 8—W. J. Miller, republican, was elected chairman of the town board. The officers elected were: For Supervisors—W. J. Miller, chairman; Fred Danrow, east side; J. A. Gunn, west side. For Town Clerk—F. P. Starr. For Treasurer—George Otis. For Assessor—Andrew Elion. For Justice of the Peace—Fred Wandel, two years; David Throne, one year. For Constable—Fred Holzapfel, John Carroll, Owen Gower. For Pound Master—L. H. Miller.

Clinton—No License.

Clinton, April 7—There was a hot fight here yesterday, there being six tickets in the field. The men elected are: President of the village board, J. O. Barker; supervisor, Henry Conley; clerk, S. M. Fisher; assessor, L. W. Sprague; treasurer, F. Salisbury; justice, H. M. O'Connell; marshal, G. W. Earle; constable, Clarence Giles; trustees, V. E. Winegar, J. W. Stoney, George Snyder, F. R. Helmer, C. L. Hanson and J. O. Simonds.

Town of Lima.

Lima, April 7—The republican town ticket was elected as follows: For supervisors—J. D. Godfrey, ch'm; N. M. Gleason, Wm. Bowers; for clerk, W. D. McCombs; for assessor, W. G. Alex.

PROPOSES TEMPERANCE PLAN.

Rev. V. E. Southworth Suggests the Formation of a Vigilance Committee.

Rev. V. E. Southworth sends The Gazette the following:

To the Friends of Temperance and the Enemies of the Saloon—Just a word to you. The election is over. Our no-license vote was weak.

The whiskey ring have it their own way. The saloons are protected by law and supported by the popular ballot. What shall we do? I propose that the campaign against the saloon be renewed at once. Let us prove to the citizens of Janesville that any law (license or no license) will be enforced.

It is a well known fact that the saloons pay no regard to the laws regulating them and the public officers either cannot or dare not make complaint. I propose that the friends of civic virtue unite in a "Forward Movement" by organizing a vigilance committee and by raising funds for the support of a special police whose duty it shall be to keep the public informed as to the doings and misdoings of the saloons and to gather evidence and make complaints and arrests of any who break the law.

Where are fifty men who will join hands for one year—pay a dollar a month for the report of such a special policeman and lead a movement that will drive lawlessness and immorality out of our city? For the purity and safety of our homes and of our children let us begin at once this systematic, and as I believe, practicable movement. Always heartily,

VICTOR E. SOUTHWORTH.

N. B. I shall be glad to receive communications from any who are alive to the importance of the work.

New Shirt Waists.

We have received an invoice of fifty dozen shirt waists the newest designs, the proper sleeves, separate collars and cuffs in black white and colors.

One can buy a shirt waist for from 49 cents to $1.89 and secure one that is entirely different from those found at other stores. It is our purpose to make our store headquarters this season for exclusive styles; we have made arrangements to receive every week during the season new novelties in shirt waists, so that ladies can have a fine assortment to select from. W. A. Thompson, who has been at Oak Lawn hospital for several weeks, returned to his home in Beloit today. He expressed himself as greatly pleased with his medical treatment by Dr. Frank Pember, and the excellent care of the matron, Mrs. Smith, and her assistants. He feels sure the board of managers and citizens have great reason to be proud of this hospital, and should give it their earnest and most hearty support.

A FINE BUST GIVEN TO BELOIT COLLEGE

Lorado Taft, the Famous Chicago Sculptor Was the Artist Gift Comes Mrs. James A. Rumrill, of Springfield, Mass.—Other Line City Events.

Beloit, Wis., April 7—[Special]—Mrs. James A. Rumrill of Springfield, Mass., presented to the college a marble bust of President Chapin. It was the work of Lorado Taft, the famous sculptor.

Beloit, Wis., April 7—It has been learned that the man reported murdered at Ribers, N. M., was probably Albert Langstaff, a brother of Mrs. E. H. Crane and Mrs. James Wilson of this city. Langstaff was once a resident of Beloit, but for many years had been following mining operations in New Mexico. He recently wrote his sisters in this city that he was about to sell a claim for a large sum, possibly $25,000, and would then visit Beloit. The messages received from Ribers stated that a man had been found murdered and robbed near that city, with a letter in his possession from one of his sisters in Beloit.

Home Forum Convention.

Beloit, Wis., April 7—A district convention of the Home Forum of Southern Wisconsin was held here yesterday, lodges being represented from Beloit, Brodhead, Darien, Evansville, Newark, Union Grove and Clinton. B. D. Treadway, of Beloit, was elected delegates to the Grand Forum at Galesburg, Ill., May 5.

Beloit Woman Dead.

Beloit, Wis., April 7—Mrs. E. L. Perceles, a former resident of this city, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Dr. Anthony, at Elgin, Ill. The remains will be brought to this city for burial.

South Clinton News.

South Clinton, April 7—Mrs. Patch and Clarence Dresser have returned to Beloit, the academy opening Tuesday. John Fisher, who has been visiting at E. L. Benedict's, has returned to Beloit. Miss Albertson has also returned. The Comfortable society had a good time at C. J. Dresser's last Tuesday, and will try it again Thursday. Oscar Bergman was a caller in the neighborhood Sunday. Tunis Nelson is visiting old friends in the neighborhood. Edwin Dresser returned to Beloit Monday. Hattie Bellinger is here for a few days. There was a pleasant little gathering at E. L. Benedict's, Saturday evening. Mrs. Jacket is gaining slowly.

Gossip From South Turtle.

South Turtle, April 7—Rev. Cyrus Osborne and wife were here for a few days. Parley Isham has rented his farm to Gus Zick and has moved to Clinton. School in the Murray district commenced Monday. Hattie Bellinger has been stopping at Mrs. D. G. Smith's for a few days. Some of our people attended the Comfortable society at C. J. Dresser's in South Clinton last week. Tunis Nelson spent a day or so at George Brown's.

FOUND THE FIRE IN TIME

Smith Block Came Near Going Up in the Smoke Last Night.

Chief Hogan and Officer Brown discovered a fire in Charles Plotz's cigar factory at 1:05 o'clock this morning, in the nick of time. A quantity of leaf had caught fire from the stove and the floor was ablaze. An alarm was turned in from box 28, and the department quickly quenched the flames. The loss was about $50, fully insured. Had the blaze gotten a little more start the block would have surely burned.

DRAW THE CURTAIN DOWN.

Friends draw the curtain down I cannot bear the light, My darling wife is dead, My heart is dark as night.

Let me sit with her alone, Her little hand in mine I yearn for shadow now, I cannot bear sunshine.

O, tears why don't ye fall And moisten my hot eyes, As life has left this day So all my pleasure dies.

No light within the room, No light within my soul, Darkness, darkness everywhere, O, let me lie all night.

They tell me joys I'll see again, A brighter day will dawn, I only ask to dwell with Thee In that celestial home.

Heart of my heart, Life of my life, My darling's dead, My wife! my wife!

O, draw the curtain down, And leave us all alone, Nothing friends can say, Can for this loss atone.

O, tears, ye will not flow; O, heart, forever cold, Must you lie beneath the sod, Within the earth's dark mold.

Could I but find a way To speak with thee tonight, 'Twould turn this maddening gloom Into heaven's own light.

DUE TO MICROBES.

BACTERIOLOGY HAS NOW DIVULGED CAUSE OF COLDS.

Doctors Catch the Germ and Study It—What Follows a Disturbance of the Balance of Circulation and Nervous Control of Blood Vessels.

ACTERIOLOGY has at last divulged the cause of the greatest of all medical mysteries—the ordinary cold. It has been attributed to all causes—air, moisture, too much cold air, overheating and recently to the stomach and overeating, says the New York Press.

The laboratory where the microbes are caught, cultivated and tamed like little beasts for several years have been trying to identify the germs of "colds," as colds seemed to lead to many diseases that have well-known germs. The first discovery was that in colds there are several varieties that produce the same results.

Germs look altogether different under the microscope and in the culture tubes, where the microbes are bred, after they have been identified and separated from others by being snared (from the common feeding ground of all sorts of bacteria) with a platinum needle. Then to make certain that the real microbe of a given disease is found the germs must be injected into a rabbit or guinea pig (or some dispensary patient) to see if the same disease will appear. Microbes which cause colds are always in the body or in the air.

There are twenty different forms of bacteria constantly present in the nose. Including nine or ten which are dangerous under certain circumstances. There are ninety forms of germs in the mouth, forty of which may cause serious disease.

Every one knows that colds are usually caught by getting oneself overheated and cooling off too suddenly. When the surface of the body is overheated all the microbes in the air seem to be attracted to the body, especially if the air around is chilly or damp; microbes cannot be killed by cold or damp, but they do not like it, and are always on the watch to find a resting place in a man, especially in one who is overheated and whose skin is covered with perspiration. If the nose is always in a condition of "catarrh" it is easy to see how a fresh cold or acute attack of catarrh is caused by exposure to a chill. But how about the various symptoms in other and distant parts of the body which generally follow a cold?

When the body is overheated and then chilled the immediate effect of the cold on the surface of the body is to excite contraction of the blood vessels near the surface. Thus the blood is driven from the surface to the inner organs, carrying along with it any microbes that may have been lodged near the surface. This excites inflammation in some organ far away from the first point affected. The way it seems to act is as follows:

All processes going on in the body are governed by the central nervous system. If, as a result of exposure to cold, the regular routine of nutrition and of circulation is checked in one part of the body, the nervous force sent out from the central nervous system, if shut off in one place, will be increased in another. Such increase is really inflammation. If any organ is liable to chronic inflammation this will be the place picked out for the acute trouble as a result of having caught cold. All the unemployed microbes will collect there, and unemployed microbes in a slightly inflamed organ are certain to make trouble. There is, however, one safeguard which saves the body from destruction every time a cold is caught.

There is in the body a set of valuable street-sweepers who do in the blood vessels and tissues exactly the work of the street-cleaning department. These are the white blood corpuscles or leucocytes. They differ from Col. Waring's white brigade in that they eat up the debris, the microbes and such things wherever they find them. The more germs and bacteria collected together in one organ the more the white corpuscles swarm in just like the regular street-sweepers in the dirty downtown districts.

If these white blood corpuscles are caught while at their work their round bodies may be found filled up with the bacteria they have eaten. In case of sudden emergencies (like pneumonia) an immense swarm of white corpuscles will appear.

There are all sorts of ways of treating inflammation in an organ. Many are as familiar to the public as to the doctors. The old-fashioned porous or mustard plaster is simply a means to collect quickly a larger number of white blood cells in the places where they are needed. The same is true of all hot applications, blisters, painting with iodine or red flannel rags.

The new idea of a cold, then, is that it is a nervous disease, which, to do any serious harm, has to work through the microbes, which are always present in the body or in the outer passages waiting for a chance to make trouble. The best way to prevent colds is to keep all parts of the body properly clad and free from any undue exposure, for it is the disturbance of the balance of circulation and the nervous control of the blood vessels that really causes the trouble.

If the feet and the nose and the mouth are kept in good condition, the chances are against the microbes doing much damage, for it is in the chilling of these parts that causes most of the colds.

THIRTY years is a long time to fight so painful a trouble as piles, but Jacob Mitchell, of Unionville, Pa., struggled that long before he tried De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve, which quickly and permanently cured him. It is equally effective in eczema and all skin affections. C. D. Stevens.

South Dakota in Springtime

Is clothed with verdure green and spotted with beautiful blue and white prairie flowers, tokens of luxuriant soil like that fair country to which Moses led the children of Israel in ancient times.

And like unto that land of plenty, South Dakota outrivals its sister states of the east in the products of its soil, sown, cultivated and harvested in less time and with greater ease than in any other portion of the United States.

And so we say unto you that now is the opportunity of a lifetime to "Go west and buy a farm." For descriptive lists and prices, address Geo. H. Heafford, G. P. A., Chicago, Ill.

It should be made a matter of public knowledge that DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve will speedily cure piles of the longest standing. It is the house hold favorite for burns, scalds, cuts, bruises and sores of all kinds. C. D. Stevens.

MANUSCRIPTS OF HIGH VALUE.

Some of the Rarest in the World Are in the Astor Library.

There are $200,000 worth of ancient manuscripts in the Astor library, but the oldest of these is the Evangelistarium, which is said to have been expressly executed for Charles the Bald, the grandson of Charlemagne. He was a patron of the fine arts, and was especially fond of embellished manuscripts. This rare and precious manuscript, which few people are aware is possessed by our city, is written on fine vellum and is an oblong quarto of 400 pages. The first four pages have splendid full-length miniatures of the four evangelists, profusely illuminated with liquid gold and emerald green, shaded with red and white on an emerald ground, the pictures covering the entire page.

St. Matthew is represented as a beardless youth inclined on a lectern, upon which there is a book with the first words of his gospel inscribed on it. St. Mark is represented as bearded and sitting upright on a throne, holding in his left hand a closed book with the first words of his gospel inscribed on its back. On the third page is a picture of St. Luke, looking more aged than his companions. He is shown with an ink horn in one hand, writing his gospels. St. John is shown on a throne holding an open scroll in his hand, upon which many words are discernable. The fifth page of this volume contains the emblems of the four evangelists—viz., the four living creatures that the prophet Ezekiel beheld in a vision surrounding the throne of God. Matthew has for his symbol a creature with a human head, Mark the lion head, John the eagle, while Luke is represented by the winged bull-headed figure. The ninth page is a magnificent specimen of interlaced capitals peculiar to manuscripts of the Carolingian era. This highly illustrated sheet forms the title page of the book. It has only fifteen letters but a closer examination reveals the marks for hidden letters. The words are "Legendum per Anni Curriculum."

One page of this precious volume is equally emblazoned with brilliant gold and colors and has the word Dominus inscribed on it. There are several other pages equally embellished with multiple interlacings and leafy shadowings. The services for the principal festivities are marvelously executed and the seventeen pages for Easter are magnificent. I can give no adequate description of this precious relic of the ancient art now in New York. A comparison with modern specimens shows that we have but little advanced over the monk artists of the ninth century. Dr. Frederick Sanders, the venerable librarian of the Astor library, justly calls this manuscript "an unrivaled beauty."

This superb manuscript was secured some fifteen years ago by the late Mr. Astor from the famous London bibliophile, Bernard Quartrich, who catalogued it in 1880 at $5,000. There are more costly manuscripts in the Astor library—for instance, the Antiphonaire of Charles X., for which I am assured the late J. J. Astor paid $10,000. But this old manuscript of Charles the Bald has, as an antique, no rival.—The Chautauquan.

FACTS WITH POINTS.

Every One of These Statements Absolutely True.

Mr. A. W. Sharper, 61 Prospect St., Indianapolis, Ind., says: "Gratitude prompts me to write that Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets completely cured me of Nervous Dyspepsia from which I had suffered for the last four years. I had tried many remedies without results, but am now cured and have gained in flesh, sleep well and have none but words of praise for Stuart's Tablets."

Mrs. Sarah A. Skeels, Lynville, Iowa: "It has been six months since I took Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and am fully cured. Have not had a particle of distress or difficulty since. This is in the face of the fact that I had suffered from stomach trouble for twenty-five years and was pronounced incurable by the doctors."

James Newmestres, Eau Claire, Wis., says: "Two 50 cent packages of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets did me more good than any remedy I had ever before tried. They hit the spot with me and I once more have an appetite and can eat what I please without fear of distress and bloating afterward."

Dr. Harlandson relates the case of Miss Helen Sholes, of Nashville, who was cured of dyspepsia and gained 18 pounds in weight after suffering from stomach trouble for eight years. The doctor uses them in all stomach troubles because they are not a secret patent medicine, but contain pure pepsin, Diastase, fruit acids and valuable digestives, which digest the food whether the stomach works or not, gives it the needed rest and a cure is the natural result.

Dr. Jensen says nine-tenths of disease is caused by indigestion and Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is the safest and best cure, because they are not a secret patent medicine, but contain the valuable digestive principles needed by every weak stomach and a whole box would not hurt a child, being absolutely harmless.

All druggists sell Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets at 50 cents per package.

Send to Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich., for little book on symptoms and treatment of stomach troubles.

THIS DAY IN HISTORY.

1770—William Wordsworth, English poet, born; died 1850. Wordsworth's genius was of the Bohemian type. He was averse to study and discipline, but fond of idle roving and roaming the fields and woodlands. His poems were composed in the open air. Southey, who was his intimate friend, wrote, "His life does not belie his writings, for in every relation of life and every point of view he is a truly exemplary and admirable man." He succeeded Southey as poet laureate of England.

1780—Dr. William Ellery Channing, Unitarian and abolition teacher, born at Newport, R. I.; died 1842.

1888—General Quincy Adonis Gilmore, Union commander on the Carolina coast, died; born 1835.

1803—Right Rev. William Ingraham Kip, first Protestant Episcopal bishop of California, died in San Francisco; born 1812.

1894—Ben King, the western poet and humorist, died at Bowling Green, Ky.

THE CITY ELECTION.

Republicans carried everything but the head of the ticket. There the position of party lines was disputed and voters waived. They gave Mr. Hedges handsome majorities in the First and Third wards. Even the Second ward, Mr. Thoroughgood's home, was carried against the republican candidate by only 41. The Fourth and Fifth, however, overcame all that the other wards could do.

The common council was placed in republican hands for another year, republicans who are representative business men and tax payers being named in the First, Second and Third wards. Even in the Fourth and Fifth the republican aldermanic candidates made a surprising showing. Mr. Marshall losing the First precinct of the Fourth—usually accounted the strong democratic precinct—by only six votes.

Republicans elected three out of four school commissioners and three out of the five supervisors.

Mr. Thoroughgood goes into the mayor's office with the good will and good wishes of all parties. His platform has been announced. He stands committed, as did Mr. Hedges, to rigid economy in city affairs, and taxpayers will look to him to fulfill this pledge above all others.

THE RESULT IN CHICAGO.

It is hard to analyze Chicago conditions from a distance, but unprejudiced outsiders are likely to ask as they read of Judge Sears' defeat: "What has been gained?"

How will the next two years in Chicago compare with the two years just ended?

As far as the mayor's power has extended, Chicago, during the last two years, has been exceptionally well governed. This is said without denying that in many matters where the council and not the mayor ruled, it has been one of the worst governed cities in the country.

Chicago's ills may be traced directly to the man who represent her in the council chamber. Yesterday's election did nothing to improve conditions in this respect, but it did remove the only barrier to plundering and spoilsmanship that had been interposed.

By dividing their forces in the face of the enemy the Chicago reformers added to the council such acknowledged gangsters as McKenna, Cullerton, Cook, Ballenberg, Brennan and Haberkorn. They put in the mayor's chair a young man pledged to "open up the town" and to "do right by the boys."

In the next two years they will have plenty of time to report.

Chicago independents and reformers have given Carter Harrison a clean passage to the mayor's chair and have allowed Bath-House Coughlin and Hinky-Dink Kenna to head the common council. The triumph for good government will be apparent by next week when the "levee" opens up with its old time fervor.

Clinton saloon keepers voted for no-license, it is said, on the sound business principle that a $25 fine three times a year is cheaper than a $300 license.

After this when a man declares flat-footed that he intends to be the next mayor of Janesville people may be inclined to let that settle it.

When both tickets are headed by republicans it is pretty hard for the republicans of the city to keep a republican from being elected.

As a silent candidate who sawed wood early and late Mr. Palmer fairly earned his majority.

Republicans have a right to feel very comfortable. They elected a majority of the common council, a majority of the school board and a majority of the county board delegation and all the city officers except mayor.

When democrats began voting Footville farmers in the lower precinct of the First all hope vanished.

TRIED TO POISON HIMSELF.

Will Hagan Attempts to Take His Own Life—Doctor Called in Time.

Will Hagan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Hagan of South Jackson street, took poison with suicidal intent this afternoon.

"I'm going to take a dose of poison" he told his mother about noon, but she thought nothing of it until she discovered the boy almost unconscious.

A telephone message from the pumping station summoned physicians, and it was reported at 4 p. m. that Hagan was in no danger. He has been in poor health for some time, and his heart has been affected.

DR. HALSEY TO TAKE A REST

The Pulpit Will Be Supplied for the Present.

Owing to the ill health of Rev. Dr. Halsey, pastor of Court Street M. E. church, the officers of the church have prevailed upon the Doctor to take a few weeks of absolute rest from all pulpit and pastoral responsibilities. For the present the pulpit will be supplied under the supervision of the official board and the presiding elder.

TO PUT ON THREE NEW CARS

Mr. Blabon Will Provide Good Rolling Stock—Machinery Not Bought.

George W. Blabon writes from Philadelphia that to replace the cars damaged by fire, three cars that will be a credit to any city will be provided. They will be bought in the east. The contract for the electrical machinery has not been given.

Puddlers' Riot Is Imminent.

Pittsburg, Pa., April 7.—The strike troubles at A. M. Byers & Co.'s iron mill, where the puddlers are striking against a reduction, are likely to end in riot. Seventeen of the twenty-eight puddling furnaces of the plant have been lighted, and the managers are determined to start the mill with non-union men. The strikers are equally determined to prevent it, and are in readiness to take decided action to carry their point. The puddlers have been re-enforced by the finishers, 200 in number, who were ordered out by Vice-President Carney of the Amalgamated Association of Iron and Steel Workers.

Florida Legislature in Session.

Tallahassee, Fla., April 7.—The Florida legislature convened at noon Tuesday. The senate and house confirmed the action of last night's caucus. Gov. Bloxham's message was received and both branches adjourned to give President Perrenot and Speaker Mays time to prepare the standing committees. A concurrent resolution was adopted inviting William J. Bryan to address the legislature on the silver question next Friday.

Hohenlohe to Be Questioned.

Berlin, April 7.—The Conservative members of the Reichstag have given notice that they will question the Imperial Chancellor, Prince Hohenlohe, as to whether, in view of the United States tariff, and particularly the marked differential treatment of German sugar, the federal government intended to adhere to the agreement of August 22, 1891, with the United States.

Missouri Weekly Crop Bulletin.

Columbia, Mo., April 7.—The weekly crop bulletin issued by the Missouri weather bureau says: No farm work has yet been done in the eastern, central and northern portions of the state owing to wet weather. In some southwestern counties much progress has been made. Wheat as a rule looks badly. The prospects for fruits are good. Grasses are starting up nicely.

Modern Forts at Galveston.

Galveston, Tex., April 7.—Under authority from Washington, Major Miller, United States engineer in charge of government works here, is negotiating for the purchase of land on Point Bolivar to be used as a site for three modern forts, one of which will be a mortar battery, one a gun battery and one a rapid-fire gun battery.

Supreme Court Will Decide.

Indianapolis, Ind., April 7.—Gov. Mount, acting upon the advice of the attorney-general, has directed that the plans for the transfer of 800 convicts, as provided for in the new reformatory law, be abandoned until the supreme court has passed upon the law. In the South Bend case Judge Hubbard held the new law to be unconstitutional.

COUNTY ELECTION RETURNS.

auder; for treasurer, I. L. Reese; for justices, J. D. Richmond, Wm. Bowens, W. E. Boyd; for constables, John Collins, John Dixon, Wm. Godfrey.

Edgerton—Democratic.

Edgerton, Wis., April 7.—The entire democratic ticket, with the exception of one supervisor, was elected here today. Results: Mayor, Andrew Jensen; treasurer, R. G. Robinson; assessor, Nelson Taylor; police justice, E. H. Smith. The vote for license carried.

Evansville—No License.

Evansville, Wis., April 7.—For mayor, William Stevens; treasurer, George L. Pullen; assessor, Homer Potter; justice supreme court, Marshall, 158; county judge, John W. Sole, 253; for amendment, 11, against, 20; for license, 38; against license, 202.

The Town of Beloit.

Beloit, Wis., April 7.—The following republican officers were elected for the town of Beloit: Chairman board of Supervisors—A. C. Powers; side supervisors, Thomas Prichard, Sam Olson; town clerk, John Yost; assessor, Wm. Myers; treasurer, W. H. Gates.

Town of Newark.

Chairman Board Supervisors—Holwer Ciochpas; side supervisors, B. C. Hanson, George Merlet. Town Clerk, M. E. Stebbins; assessor, Richard Gille; town treasurer, K. C. Rostad; justices of the peace, E. H. Skinner, K. C. Rostad; constables, Nils Benson, Ed. Klopfenstein.

Town of Turtle.

Chairman of board of supervisors, C. H. Weirick; side supervisors, Martin Reimer, C. L. Tuttle; town clerk, M. N. Wheeler; treasurer, Fred L. Rost; assessor, John A. Crockett.

Milton—No License.

Milton, Wis., April 6.—The republican ticket was nominated. Judge Marshall received 202; sale for county judge received 300 majority. The majority against license was 95.

Orfordville For License.

Orfordville, April 7.—Orfordville went for license by 22.

BROTHERS IN A FATAL FIGHT.

Two Families Come Together For Blood in Tomahawk.

Tomahawk, April 6.—Adam Poly was stabbed to death last night in a free for all row between Jim, Alexander and William McCutcheon three brothers and Fred and Adam Coley. Knives billiard cues and clubs were used in the fight. Poly lived but a few minutes. The fight was the outcome of an old feud.

LOSERS BURN POLLING PLACE

Special Tax Defeated in Pelican, Wis., by Napoe on Political Strategy.

Pelican, Wis., April 7.—Politicians fired the polling place last night while the tickets were being counted. The fire spread so rapidly that all the tickets were destroyed, and another election must be held. Opponents of a special tax are accused of setting the fire, it being practically certain that the tax had carried.

Draper Attempts to Commit Suicide.

Jacksonville, Ill., April 7.—C. L. Draper, accused of the murder of Chas. L. Hastings, tried to end his life by hanging sometime in the night. He had not placed the noose right, and the result was terrible strangulation, instead of a broken neck, as was intended. Fellow-prisoners heard his struggles and gave the alarm. Draper was rescued and physicians summoned, who soon revived him. He still stoutly maintains his innocence.

Want Hunter to Retire.

Frankfort, Ky., April 7.—Dr. W. G. Hunter, twice the republican nominee for the United States senate, and unable to win on either occasion, has been called upon to surrender his leadership to some man who can lead a united party to victory. If by Thursday night he has not won, and cannot put his fingers on enough votes to elect him the next day, the leaders of the republican party will hold another caucus and select another nominee.

Sutherland Trial Has Begun.

Plymouth, Ind., April 7.—The jury in the Sutherland murder case was sworn in late Monday night. The evidence Tuesday was mostly preliminary, showing where the murder was committed and where the body was found. Dr. Glazenbrook, who conducted the post-mortem examination before the coroner's jury, gave testimony as to the location and nature of the wounds inflicted.

Moody in St. Louis.

St. Louis, Mo., April 7.—Music hall, in the exposition building, the largest hall in the city, was taxed to its utmost Tuesday afternoon by people who had come to hear Dwight L. Moody, the evangelist, who was assisted in the services by a picked choir of 500 voices. This is the first time he has been here since 1876. Meetings will be held afternoons and nights for four days.

Anti-Cartoon Bill Passed.

Albany, N. Y., April 7.—The Ellisworth anti-cartoon bill has passed the senate by a vote of 35 to 14. It has yet to come up in the assembly.

Twenty Persons Are Killed.

Lisbon, April 7.—Twenty persons were killed and many others were injured by an explosion here Tuesday in a fireworks factory.

Set Lewis Under Arrest.

Urbana, O., April 7.—Set Lewis, the notorious bond forger, has been arrested at Ypsilanti, Mich.

SAY TRAMPS VOTED IN THE FIFTH WARD

POLICE LOCK UP THREE WAN-DERING HOBOES.

Challenger O'Donnell Suspected Them
and Officer Appleby and Sheriff Acheson Place Them Under Arrest—Case Adjourned—Offense Punishable by Term at Waupun.

On the charge that they voted illegally in the Fifth ward yesterday, Frank Mahen, Patrick Rearden and John Ryan—all three wandering hoboes—were arrested yesterday afternoon by Officer Appleby and Sheriff Acheson and are now lodged in jail, their case being adjourned until Friday next at 2 o'clock, by Judge Phelps this morning.

In case the men are convicted they stand an excellent chance of spending from one to three years in the state prison at Waupun.

Fifth ward "politicians" were busy yesterday. The Whitehall club was on hand early, as an organization, with a "proposition" that they made in secret. The leaders of the club were jubilant over the fact that during the night they had discovered a gang of hoboes who were sleeping in the stock yards. Instantly told them that these men "might come handy."

The hoboes, it is said, were then notified that in case a call was issued, to come forward singly, "lock wise," and vote often.

Three of these tramps, it is claimed,
cast their ballot but that the mistake was not discovered till the last man—Frank Mahen—was suspected by Challenger O'Donnell.

Whether any illegal votes were cast previous to the discovery, is not known, but it is surmised that "there were others."

Officer Appleby was then notified, and he and the sheriff found the three men while they were eating at the Northwestern restaurant.

District Attorney Jackson will prosecute the case, while Attorney J. L.
Mahoney has been engaged by "someone" to defend the men.

THE MYSTERY IS UNSOLVED

Marks of Violence Found on George Lyman's Head.

The mystery of George Lyman's death is still unsolved. Some marks of violence were found on the body, and $20 in money was missing from his person.

After the remains had been prepared for burial yesterday, Health Officer James Gibson made an examination of the body at Ryan's undertaking rooms. Three wounds were found on the head. One on the forehead indicated that he had fallen against some hard substance and although no bones were broken the skin was cut through. Two discolorations about the eyes were also discovered.

When Mr. Lyman left his home in Juda at 8 o'clock Monday morning, he had $225 in bills and some small change. On arriving in this city he went to the law office of Dunwiddie &
Wheeler, where he paid a note of $200.

When the body was found the next morning two pocketbooks were found on his person. One was empty, while the other contained a $5 bill and and twenty-eight cents in change, but the $20 was missing. The remains were sent to Juda last night.

THE FATHER KEPT THE BOY.

Judge Bennett Rules Against Mrs. A.
Austin This Morning.

Mrs. A. Austin asked the custody of her young son this morning but Judge Bennett ruled against her and the lad will stay with his father. The divorce action is still pending.

In the case of John Rouk administrator vs Bertha Christian et al, the court ordered judgment for the plaintiff for $290.95 damages, $51 taxes, $20 solicitor's fees and costs taxed at $177.67.

Judgment was ordered in the foreclosure sale of John Buhanne vs Charles Batchler. The parties reside in Jefferson county.

In the case of Alexander Richardson vs. George G. Sutherland et al both motions were overruled and proceedings stayed.

John Hanson was admitted to citizenship.

BEYOND THE CARES OF EARTH

Mrs. Thomas Van Alstine.

Evaline Carr, wife of Thomas Van Alstine of the town of Plymouth, died at her home at 8:45 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, aged seventy-four, of general breaking down incident to old age. She was born in Cayhoga county, New York, and came to Wisconsin forty-nine years ago, when she and her husband settled upon the farm where she resided at the time of her death. Her husband, only, survives her. She was possessed of a genial and kindly disposition and all who had the privilege of her acquaintance mourn her death. The funeral will be held from the house on Friday at 10 a. m. and from the Plymouth church at 11 o'clock.

Funeral of Mrs. J. B. Murphy.

The funeral of Mrs. J. B. Murphy of the town of Rock, was conducted by the Rev. E. M. McGinnity this morning, from St. Patrick's church.
The interment was in Mount Olivet cemetery, and the pall bearers were John Busfield, James Dillon, William Corrall, George Barnett, John Carroll, and Corry Good.

A heavy draft horse was shipped to Indiana last evening by Hadden, Scott & Mount.

BADGER NON-SUIT HAS BEEN UPHELD

DECISION IN THE COTTON MILL CASE AFFIRMED.

Supreme Court Passes Upon the Damage Suit Involving the Alleged Negligence of the Janesville Corporation—Full Text of the Decision Not Yet Received.

The supreme court affirms the judgment of the circuit court in the case of A. E. Badger against the Janesville Cotton Mills.

The decision was announced in a dispatch received by Sutherland & Nolan this morning.

As will be remembered the plaintiff was loom fixer in the cotton mills in the fall of 1894 and November 12 of that year he went up on a ladder to try to unwind a loose belt that he was flopping about a shaft.
The shaft was making over 200 revolutions a minute. He climbed up on a ladder beside the shaft and his testimony in court was that the ladder broke under him and threw him against the pulley. His left arm was wound about the shaft and jerked off in an instant and he was whipped against the ceiling. The shaft caught his arm and tore it off about an inch below the elbow, then wrapped the rest of the arm about the shaft and broke it every inch or two inches, and whirling him around against the ceiling broke his collar bone in two places and split the shoulder blade.

Complaint was made that the ladder furnished was weak and insufficient.

The answer alleged that the plaintiff was guilty of negligence in climbing up to touch a rapidly running belt, and that the ladder was not broken by his weight, but by the force by which it was struck.

Judge Bennett, after hearing the testimony of several carpenters and contractors granted a non-suit. This the circuit court now affirms. The supreme court's line of reasoning in the case is awaited with lively interest. Fethers, Jeffries, Fiffeld & Mount have represented City Clerk Badger in the litigation and Sutherland & Nolan have appeared for the Janesville Cotton mills.

FOUND CRAZY MAN TIED WITH ROPE

VICTOR BJORKLUND, OF JOHNS-TOWN, INSANE.

After He Had Thrown Things About
the House Neighbors Bound Him
So That He Could Not Hurt the Members of the Family—Taken to Mendota.

Victor Bjorklund of Johnstown, was taken to the hospital for the insane at Mendota, a raving maniac. Bjorklund's arms and legs were tightly bound with ropes and seven men were watching him when Under Sheriff
Wallace Cochran and Officer John Brown reached the unfortunate man's home in the town of Johnstown this morning. Bjorklund is an industrious Swede who for years has resided on his farm in that township. He is a man of about forty years of age and has a wife and three children, the youngest being seven years of age.

For the past five years he has been troubled with spells of sickness but the attacks were not thought to be of a serious nature. Sunday evening he expressed a desire to attend church.
After services he returned home and at once showed signs of violent insanity. He threw things right and left and at the same time kept up a continual singing. He imagined that he could read the minds of people, and things that he thought he learned that way bothered him. After the tantrum of Sunday night neighbors took him in hand and bound him with ropes. Dr. James Mills and Dr. Rockwell were called and examined the man yesterday afternoon. They decided that he was insane and this morning Under Sheriff Cochran and Officer Brown brought the man to this city where he was placed in jail. He was taken to Mendota at 10:40 o'clock.

WOMEN USE TOBACCO.

SOCIETY WORKING TO DOWN THE USE OF CIGARETTES.

Empress of Austria Has the Habit—Much Rejoicing in Some Circles Over the Attitude of the Young Czarina.

M DECELOIX, the delightful president of the Society for the Prevention of the Abuse of Tobacco, must have jumped for joy at reading in the papers that the young czarina is so opposed to the use of cigarettes that she is trying to take some action in her own immediate circle against the habit of smoking, which has become quite prevalent among women in the best society in Russia, says Les Annales.

M. Decroix would not doubt like to see the sovereigns of other countries imitate this example, for during the last few years the cigarette habit has been laying hold of women all over the world.

In France the association of men and women in all kinds of sports has been the cause of a greater degree of intimacy and has brought us to accept the cigarette, whose use is extending among young women of the most exclusive circles. Even the most critical no longer protest when two rosy lips send out a few puffs of smoke between a couple of games of tennis. Besides, our grandmothers loved tobacco. The Duchess of Chartres and the Duchess of Bourbon, under Louis XIV., even went so far as to smoke pipes; yes, pipes, my dears.

In all times Spanish women have smoked, and not only cigarettes, but cigars. Marbot, in his "Memoirs," tells us this without mincing matters. And they smoke in England and in the United States, although in the latter country it is only recently that women have begun to use tobacco. There was a story in Gil Blas not long ago to the effect that three young girls in Louisville, Ky., were seen smoking by a policeman and were arrested. The judge, although recognizing that the accused were not conforming to the proprieties, felt bound to release them because they were violating no law.

To confine one's observations to those in the highest places it may be said that the Empress of Austria smokes from thirty to forty cigarettes a day; the dowager empress of Russia smoker, but only in her own private apartments, while the Queen of Roumania, the Queen Regent of Spain, Queen Amalie of Portugal—who in this respect is following her mother's example—the wife of the Comte de Paris, and, lastly, the Queen of Italy, are all confirmed smokers. And yet M. Decroix is anxious that kings and princes and their august consorts should be the ones to set a good example! At one time, about two years ago, he had a hopeful moment.

It is well known that Queen Victoria is fond of snuff and that her son, the Prince of Wales, smokes cigars from morning until night. One day the newspapers announced that the prince, upon the advice of his physician, was going to give up smoking. There was great rejoicing in the Society for the Prevention of the Abuse of Tobacco, but prudence of the most elementary sort bade them take the precaution of making inquiries before indulging in too much rejoicing. So they wrote to London. Alas! The prince replied that there was no foundation for the report and that he was smoking just as he always had. At which M. Decroix nearly fell ill.

Another disappointment awaited him a few months after this. It was the sudden retirement of M. Casimir-Perier almost before he was fairly installed in the presidential chair. M. Casimir-Perier was the ideal president for M. Decroix, a president who did not smoke, or who smoked so little that it was not worth while mentioning.

M. Casimir-Perier resigned his office. And to whom?

To M. Felix Faure, who smokes a pipe!

Mrs. A. Inven, residing at 720 Henry street Alton, Ill., suffered with sciatic rheumatism for over eight months. She doctored for it nearly the whole of this time, using various remedies recommended by friends, and was treated by the physicians, but received no relief. She then used one and a half bottles of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which effected a complete cure. This is published at her request as she wants others similarly afflicted to know what cured her. Wherever the good qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy become known the people will have nothing else. For sale at C. D. Stevens' Pharmacy, corner Main and Milwaukee streets.

THE LAND OF BONES.

VAST MEXICAN TERRITORY OF ANCIENT CIVILIZATION.

Many Evidences of "Great Antiquity"—Explorations Begun Last Year Attended with Much Success—A Large Cemetery.

THE exploration of Quechmictopli can, in the state of Guerrero, Mexico, begun last year by Mr. William Niven, will be continued in May, and Mr. Niven is now making arrangements for the extended work, says the New York Herald. The American Geographical Society is taking a deep interest in the explorations. When I saw the explorer at his home last week and heard of his plans I asked about the land where he had resurrected an ancient civilization.

"It is a strange land," answered Mr. Niven, "and, though likely the center of one of the earliest civilizations on the continent, is as little known as any portion of the globe. There are vast portions of Guerrero—at least one-fourth of it—that human foot has not trod since history began until recent explorations were started, and yet spread all over it are the plain evidences of a vast and ancient civilization. Architectural and human remains cover at least 6,000 square miles of this land and so plentiful are the human remains that from time immemorial the place has been called Quechmictopli, which literally means 'what a quantity of bones on top.' This is often contracted into Omiltan, which means 'a place of bones.' This Omiltan lies northwest of Chilpancingo, which is the capital of Guerrero, and about 200 miles west of south from the City of Mexico. If you have seen the great canyon of the Colorado you have seen an index to this land. Its mountains are not rolling, but all are straight up and down, forming the grandest of gorges and the most difficult land in the world to travel over. This is one reason the region has not been penetrated; then the natives are not explorers, or even travelers, but love their home spots, and, besides, they fear the dangers of a wild, unknown land. As the Mexican law forbids the removal of antiquities from the country, I applied to President Diaz and through him got permission to explore this wild land and to remove duplicates of objects discovered. Armed with this authority and with letters of introduction from priests—that are even more potent—which were obtained often through a gift of a photograph of a church, I had but little trouble, excepting that offered by Nature, who has worked her grandest cataclysm in this land; objections of natives to work under some circumstances, and biting insects. This land is a vast cemetery," continued Mr. Niven. "Human remains are to be found everywhere and can be seen in all directions without even the necessity of excavation. No wonder the land is called Omiltan. There are places where layers of human bones show themselves along the face of great cliffs—not lying as though buried but in a great jumbled mass, as though thrown in their present position by some great upheaval of the land. These things are confined to no one spot but extend all over the land. In no direction can you go more than a few hundred feet without finding the ruins of the ancient city. These show the buildings to have been most substantial, carefully built by the use of square and plumb line but without ornamentation. In two days' travel I counted 1,200 remains of buildings, their dimensions being from 40 to 100 feet. These are all rectangular but not square. Among these buildings were the twenty-two temples which I have described before, and each temple has its altar.

"Thee are temples, altars and idols innumerable; yet it is difficult to reach a conclusion as to the religion of the ancient people who occupied this broad territory beyond what these things imply. I must wait for further developments before expressing an opinion on this subject. Among the natives, most of whom now profess the catholic religion, there exists a mass of legends and any quantity of folklore, but they lead to nothing definite as to the ancient religion. Yet the strange fact remains that these people are to this day influenced by the traditions, the temples, the altars and the idols that have been preserved. Frequently I have found offerings of fruit at these altars and have known natives to burn a mixture of rosin and charcoal in these temples, evidently as an incense. When I ask why they do these things they answer that their fathers did so, and that is all I can learn. I intend to make a special investigation into the folklore of these people, and look for most unique and interesting results. They are, as is to be expected, a very superstitious people, believe firmly in spirits and apparitions and are at times controlled by fear of something else that will stop them suddenly in their work of excavation and drive them from particular spots. I have in my explorations suffered from the disadvantage of this sort of thing more than once. Idols are to be found in great numbers and they are usually of the smaller variety—from three to four inches in length. These are nearly all stone, of the hardest varieties, worked out with great pains and skill. I found a few large idols, one quite a unique specimen, about seven feet long, of the human form, carved into a larger stone. These idols may be of Aztec origin. They are to be found in every direction, in the temples, by the altars, among the bones and with all of the ruins.

Vanderbilt Was in the Game.

"I'll bet those fellows won't have a bit of fun," said an official of the New York Central railroad, who was watching the Vanderbilt party start for the Pacific coast. Then he added, "I don't suppose they will have a single game. If they do, and some one held a pretty fair hand, Cornelius would raise him a million dollars, and then where would the man with the cards be?" This reference to poker games led to one of the party telling a story about William H. Vanderbilt. Mr. Vanderbilt had a few friends out with him on a trip in his private car, and a quiet little game of poker was proposed. The tacit agreement was that the limit was to be $5. The game went along with the usual fluctuations, until suddenly one of the party caught an excellent hand. He took advantage of the fact that it was not an ironclad limit, but only a tacit agreement, and insisted on raising $50. W. H. Vanderbilt's eyes twinkled. When it came around to his bet he "saw" the $50 and then said: "I'll raise you $50,000." But you cannot do that," protested the first bettor. "Oh, yes, I can," responded Mr. Vanderbilt serenely. The first bettor threw down his cards and said: "Well, I know I have the best hand, but I cannot see that 'raise.' " "Too bad," was Mr. Vanderbilt's philosophical comment: "you ought not to have broken through the fence on the start."—New York Tribune.

Pearls and Oysters.

Pearls are found in all waters where oysters or mussels abound. They have been discovered in the shells of the common mussel in many rivers of the United States. The most extensive pearl fisheries, however, are those in the Red Sea, in the Persian gulf and in the Indian ocean, off the island of Ceylon. The product of the Red sea and Persian gulf does not cut any considerable figure in the world's supply, which comes mainly from Ceylon and the Indian coast, where pearl diving is a regular business with thousands of men.

News Which Cost Money.

The account of the dynamite explosion at Johannesburg, Africa, was cabled to the newspapers at a cost of $10 a word and at a total expense of about $40,000.

Horses Not Worth Stealing.

One great moral influence not yet credited to the bicycle is indicated in the fact that horses are now so cheap in the west that horse stealing is no longer worth while, and that species of crime has practically disappeared.

First English Marquis.

Historians tell us that the first English marquis was created by Richard II, who bestowed the title upon his favorite, Robert de Vere, in 1336.

Food Ill Digested.

Imperfectly nourishes the system, since it is only partially assimilated by the blood, pale, bagged mortals, with dyspeptic stomachs, impoverished circulation and weak nerves, experience a marked and rapid improvement in their physical condition by availing themselves of that sure resource of the sick and debilitated, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. This genial tonic and alternative lends an impetus to the processes of digestion which insures an adequate development of the materials of blood, fiber and muscular tissue. Moreover, it soothes and strengthens overwrought or weak nerves, counteracts a tendency to hypochondria or despondency, to which dyspeptic and bilious persons are peculiarly liable, and is an agreeable and wholesome appetizer and promoter of repose. The infirmities of age, and delicate female constitutions, are greatly relieved by it; and it is a reliable preventive of, and remedy for, malarial fevers.

FORECLOSURE SALE.—THE STATE OF WISCONSIN, CIRCUIT COURT FOR ROCK COUNTY.

Rebecca Ward, plaintiff, vs. The Spring Brook Improvement Company, George L. Carington, Sarah H. Carington, George J. Hitchcock and James J. Hall, defendants.

Notice is hereby given that by virtue and in pursuance of a judgment of foreclosure and sale rendered in the above entitled action at a regular term of the circuit court for Rock county, Wisconsin, on the 1st day of February, A. D. 1897, in favor of the above named plaintiff, and against the above named defendants, I shall offer for sale and sell at public auction to the highest bidder at the front door of the postoffice in the city of Janesville, Rock county, Wisconsin, on the 22nd day of March, A. D. 1897, at nine o'clock in the forenoon of said day, the following described lands and premises in and by said judgment of foreclosure directed to be sold, situated in the city of Janesville, county of Rock, and state of Wisconsin, and described as follows, to-wit:

Lots numbered one (1), two (2), three (3), eight (8), ten (10), twelve (12), fourteen (14), one hundred twenty-seven (127), two hundred twenty-five (225), two hundred thirty-two (232), all being in Spring Brook addition to Janesville, according to the duly recorded plat thereof, all of said lots being in the City of Janesville, County of Rock and State of Wisconsin, together with the privileges and appurtenances to the same belonging, or so much thereof as will be necessary to pay said judgment and costs and costs of sale.

Dated, Feb. 2, 1897.

Only Two Weeks to Easter. Easter Glove Sale Wednesday: : :

We Believe Our is a little more complete, the styles a little more attractive and the prices a little lower than ever before in our history. That's not saying much, as advertising usually goes, but it's saying a good deal when you come to understand that for years we have given the best kid glove bargains in town.

For this sale we have made extra preparations, and have many things in gloves which are very scarce in the market, such as the green and red shades.

89 cents. Pique sewed—three rows heavy embroidery, two patent clasps—colors: black, brown, mode, white and red; easily worth $1.25.

89 cents. The patent clasp gauntlet gloves, in shades of tan and brown.

89 cents. 4-button glaze kid gloves, self backs, also with heavy stitching; colors: black, tan, mode, brown, slate, red and white.

89 cents. 2 patent clasp, mocha gloves—self backs; shades of brown and dark tan, also black; $1.50 value.

69 cents. Children's five hooks, glaze kids, sizes 5 to 6½; shades of tan and brown.

$1.19. Real kid, four large pearl buttons, either black or white, heavy three rows embroidery; colors: the new reds, the new greens, the new browns the new modes.

$1.29. Eight button length suede mosquetaire gloves, in black, white and tan.

89 cents. 5 and 7-hook Foster lacing glove; colors: black, tan, brown and slate.
